How to run the 90-minute fence

Set one timer for the whole fence. Keep the block order. If a block finishes early, rest — do not steal minutes from the next block. Done beats perfect.

Block	Mins	Focus
1 · Kitchen clear	20	Surfaces, sink, bin, tomorrow's breakfast zone
2 · Kids tidy box	15	Toys/shoes into one box; floor walkable
3 · Clothes & bags	15	Laundry start, school bags, coats
4 · Calendar dump	20	Week grid, clubs, pickups, one hard yes
5 · Digital ten	10	Inbox skim, mute noise, one admin
6 · Close the loop	10	Tomorrow bag + fridge glance + stop

Weekly intention (one sentence)

Prompt: What would make Monday feel lighter?

Filled example: "School bags packed Sunday night so we are not hunting shoes at 8:05."

Block 1 · Kitchen clear · 20 min

- Clear worktops into one tray (not the whole house)
- Wash or load the dishwasher
- Wipe hob + sink
- Empty bin / recycling
- Set tomorrow's breakfast zone (oats / toast kit / fruit)

What stays out overnight?

Filled example: Oats jar + bowls on the island; everything else away.

Block 2 · Kids tidy box · 15 min

- One box or basket for floor toys — timer on
- Shoes to the door rack (one pair each)
- Books/papers into a “decide later” pile — not the sofa
- Quick floor walk: can you push a buggy through?

Where does the tidy box live this week?

Filled example: Basket by the sofa; Lego capped; floor walkable.

Block 3 · Clothes & bags · 15 min

- Start one wash (or dryer → fold pile)
- School / work bags: water, lunch kit, PE kit
- Coats hung; odd socks into a sock bag
- Tomorrow's outfit laid or noted (optional)

Bag / PE gaps to fix before Monday

Filled example: PE kit in bag; lunch boxes drying; one wash running.

Block 4 prep · What must land on the week grid

List clubs, pickups, work late nights, food shop, birthdays. You will place them on the next page.

Block 4 · Calendar dump · 20 min

Dump the week onto the grid. Circle the one hard yes. Everything else is negotiable.

Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun

This week's hard yes (one only)

Filled example: "Thu 15:40 — dentist for Maya; leave work at 14:50."

Meals glance (Mon–Wed only — keep light)

	Mon	Tue	Wed
Dinner
Notes

Block 5 · Digital ten · 10 min

- Scan inbox: archive pile or one reply only
- Mute one noisy group chat until Monday
- One admin: pay / book / confirm — write it below

The one admin I actually did

Filled example: Paid swimming; muted class WhatsApp; archived promo pile.

Block 6 · Close the loop · 10 min

- Tomorrow's bag by the door
- Fridge glance: dinner plan for Mon–Tue
- Tick the fence complete — stop (no bonus rooms)

Fence finished at (time)

--

Filled example: Bags by door; leftover pasta Monday; fence ticked 17:42.

Soft note

This workbook is a planning tool, not medical, legal or financial advice. Skip any block that does not fit your household.

Weekly repeat log

Reuse this workbook every Sunday. Date each run. Track what slipped so next week's fence stays honest.

Date	Start	End	What slipped	Note for next week

Bonus · when the week already feels full

Use this page only if you have 5 spare minutes after the fence — never instead of Blocks 1–6.

Three must-dos for Monday (not twenty)

Filled example: 1) Post forms 2) Food shop after school 3) Call GP re: referral

Parked for later (brain dump — no action today)

House rule for this workbook

If the fence slips one Sunday, restart next week. No catch-up marathon. Soft Stripe path: free Sunday Reset magnet → this workbook → Weekly Planner when you want a standing week system.
