Sunday Reset

A 90-minute Sunday that sets up the whole week.

What's inside

- The 90-minute Sunday sequence p.2
- This week on one page: top 3, diary, meals p.3
- Five-minute Sunday check for next time p.4

How to use it

1. Set a 90-minute timer. Work the five blocks in order.
2. Tick each block, jot anything that spilled over in the notes line.
3. When the timer goes, stop. Unfinished jobs go on next Sunday's list, not tonight.
4. Finish with the one-page week: three must-dos, the diary, five teas.

Print it or type into it
Print at 100% on A4 (or 'fit to page' for US Letter). To fill it in on screen, open it in Adobe Acrobat Reader, Edge, Chrome or Mac Preview and click any line or tick box.

The 90-minute Sunday sequence

Kitchen first, then clothes, diary, bags and ten minutes of digital. The minutes add up to 90. Stop when the timer goes.

Kitchen 25 min

- [ ] Empty the sink and run the dishwasher
- [ ] Wipe the hob and worktops
- [ ] Bins out if it is collection night
- [ ] Fridge check: label leftovers with a day

Clothes 20 min

- [ ] One wash on, one load folded
- [ ] Monday's clothes out on a chair
- [ ] School and work kit out of bags
- [ ] Shoes by the door

Diary 15 min

- [ ] Open the week: appointments, bin night, clubs
- [ ] Anything with a real start time goes in
- [ ] Message anyone you need to (lift, pick-up, swap)
- [ ] Pick three must-dos (next page)

Bags and paper 20 min

- [ ] Work bag and school bags emptied
- [ ] Letters opened: bin, file or act
- [ ] Keys, chargers, passes back in place
- [ ] Permission slips signed

Ten-minute digital 10 min

- [ ] Downloads and desktop cleared
- [ ] Camera roll: delete the obvious junk
- [ ] Inbox skim for anything due this week
- [ ] Phone on charge for Monday

Done at 90 minutes

Stop when the timer goes. What's left is next Sunday's first job, not a reason to keep going until midnight.

Notes

This week on one page

Notes

Five-minute check for next Sunday

Sunday resets get easier when you notice what went wrong last time. Answer these next Sunday before you start the timer.

Question	Your answer
What slipped last week?
Which block ran over?
What would make Monday easier?
One thing to stop doing

Want more than one page?
The Sunday Reset Workbook has eight weeks of timed resets with prompts and filled UK examples. Find it at tchworks.co.uk.

Notes

Keep the reset going

This is one Sunday. The workbook gives you eight, each a timed 90-minute reset, so Monday stops ambushing you. 12-page fillable PDF.
