What's inside

Seven pages that cover a job from first quote to money in the bank

3 Quote
Price the job clearly: line items, validity, terms, sign-off.

4 Invoice (with VAT)
Net, VAT at 20% / 5% / 0%, total, bank details, payment terms.

5 Job tracker
Every job on one page: quoted, started, invoiced, paid.

6 Expenses log
Monthly costs by HMRC-style category, with receipt tick box.

7 Client list
Contacts, terms and notes for each customer.

8 Invoice tracker
Status of every invoice and who to chase.

9 Payment chase letters
Three calm, firm wordings for overdue invoices.

How to use

- Fill the quote first; copy the same line items to the invoice when the job is done.
- Number invoices in sequence (e.g. 2026-001) and log each one on the tracker.
- Keep receipts for six years after the 31 January deadline for that tax year (HMRC guidance).
- Only charge VAT if you are VAT-registered and show your VAT number on the invoice.

Payment chase letters

Fill the [brackets] · copy into an email · stay calm and factual

1. Friendly reminder (1–3 days overdue)

Subject: Invoice [NUMBER], quick reminder
Hi [NAME],
Just a reminder that invoice [NUMBER] for £[AMOUNT] for [JOB] was due on [DATE].
Could you let me know when it will be paid, or if anything is missing on your side?
Thanks, [YOUR NAME]

2. Firm chase (7–14 days overdue)

Subject: Invoice [NUMBER] now [X] days overdue
Hi [NAME],
Invoice [NUMBER] for £[AMOUNT] is now [X] days overdue. I have attached a copy.
Please pay to [ACCOUNT DETAILS] by [DATE, 7 days from today] and reply to confirm.
If there is a problem with the invoice, tell me today so we can sort it.
Regards, [YOUR NAME]

3. Final notice (30+ days overdue, business customers)

Subject: Final notice: invoice [NUMBER]
Dear [NAME],
Despite earlier reminders on [DATES], invoice [NUMBER] for £[AMOUNT] remains unpaid.
Unless payment is received by [DATE, 7 days from today], I will claim statutory interest and compensation under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 and may start a claim through the small claims court without further notice.
Yours sincerely, [YOUR NAME], [BUSINESS NAME]

Final-notice wording applies to business-to-business debts. For consumers, check gov.uk guidance before threatening action.
